

Rep. Mark Newton
District 123

Biography

Representative Mark Newton, a Republican, represents the 123rd House District, which includes portions of Augusta and Columbia County. Dr. Newton is the chairman of the House Special Committee on Access to Quality Health Care. He also serves as a Majority Caucus deputy whip. Rep. Newton also serves as the vice chairman of the House Health and Human Services Committee and as a member of the Small Business Development, Transportation and Ways & Means committees.

Rep. Newton is a dedicated member of the Georgia community. He was born and raised in Macon, Georgia. Rep. Newton practices in Augusta as a board-certified emergency physician and is also the founder and CEO of MedNow Urgent Care Centers with locations throughout the Greater Augusta and east Georgia areas.

Rep. Newton earned his bachelor's degree at the University of Georgia and earned his medical degree from the Medical College of Georgia. He has also completed his master's degree in healthcare management at Harvard University School of Public Health.

During his time in the military, Dr. Newton served in the U.S. Army Medical Corps, including a deployment to Kuwait and Saudi Arabia during Operation Desert Storm. Following this, Dr. Newton returned to the Medical College of Georgia for additional residency training in emergency medicine and trauma. During his medical career, Dr. Newton served on numerous medical mission trips to South America, including the Amazon River area and mountain regions of Ecuador and Peru.

For more than 30 years, Dr. Newton has been married to his college sweetheart, Joni. They are active members of Warren Baptist Church and are the proud parents of four wonderful children.